

FAH THAI

Krabi lingers in the heart with its unhurried pace and breezy beauty, offering stays that range from soulful simplicity to the lavish and extraordinary.

However, for visitors seeking a truly memorable escape, Rayavadee is where luxury soars beyond expectation. Nestled on the Phranang Peninsula at the edge of Krabi Marine National Park, this stunning resort blends seamlessly into its natural surroundings. Picture sparkling blue waters, soaring limestone cliffs, lush jungle alive with wildlife, and a secluded beach, all embraced by the warmth of five-star hospitality.

The resort's accommodation portfolio is second to none. From the Family Villa to the Raitalay Villa, the celebrated Rayavadee Villa, and coveted Phranang Villas 401 and 404, each offers its own unique experience. Interiors are crafted with understated sophistication, harmonising natural textures with tropical tones that mirror the surrounding landscape. Guests are treated to a discreet butler service, with stellar restaurants, a serene spa, and thrilling island adventures all within easy reach.

The Rayavadee Villa is the pinnacle of indulgence. With a private pool overlooking the picture-perfect Phranang Beach, elegant Thai-inspired interiors, two spacious bedrooms, a sauna, a kitchenette and inviting alfresco spaces, it sets the stage for extraordinary living.

Meanwhile, Phranang Villa 404 delivers a different kind of magic. Spanning 417 square metres, it sits in a private enclave framed by dramatic limestone cliffs. Inside, the master bedroom and two guest bedrooms – each with its own ensuite bathroom – offer comfort and seclusion. The generous living room, dining area and kitchenette ensure a home-like ease, while a personal butler anticipates your every need.

Dining at Rayavadee is equally captivating. The Grotto, set beneath soaring cliffs amid the gentle rhythm of lapping waves, offers one of Krabi's most atmospheric settings. It is a place where fabulous flavours meet nature's majesty, with mountains rising behind, the ocean stretching before you and every dish crafted with flair by the resort's culinary team.

The Twilight Dinner Set Menu transforms this space into a haven for romance, giving couples an intimate and unforgettable evening without ever leaving the resort.

More than just a destination, Rayavadee is an encounter with Krabi at its most enchanting.
